

MCA course in IGNOU

2785. SHRI DWIJENDRA NATH SHARMAH: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the details of stipulated period for completion of MCA course in IGNOU;

(b) whether in special circumstances of cases of students, competent authority is empowered to further extend period for completion of course by allowing them to re-appear in those unqualified papers;

(c) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor;

(d) whether Government are of view to reconsider those cases where students have qualified all papers except one or two papers unleared by one mark short in aggregate for allowing them to re-appear/awarding grace mark in related papers for saving academic career of students; and

(e) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI): (a) to (c) As per the information furnished by IGNOU, the stipulated minimum period of its MCA Course is three years. However, the maximum duration of the MCA Course with pre-revised syllabus is seven years, whereas, the revised MCA Course, which was launched in January 2005, has a maximum duration of six years. In case of both the courses, the maximum duration is further extendable by another two years on payment of pro-rata fee for those courses, which were not successfully completed during the prescribed duration.

(d) and (e) The rules of the University provides for grace marks to the extent of 2% in term-end examination to those students, who failed to score requisite 40% marks in individual courses, subject to the condition that they have overall scored 50% marks in aggregate, which is a requirement to successfully complete the MCA Course.
